

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL MEMORANDUM

SB 362 – HB 1318

March 1, 2017

SUMMARY OF ORIGINAL BILL: Permits a parent to file any documents or forms necessary to execute a surrender or parental consent with a court prior to the birth of the unborn child. Any such surrender or parental consent is invalid prior to the birth of the child and the expiration of any applicable waiting period. After the birth of the child and the expiration of any waiting period, the surrender or parental consent previously filed is considered executed and no additional action is required.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT (004400): Deletes all language after the enacting clause. Authorizes a parent to start the process of surrender or parental consent prior to the unborn child by appearing before a judge of a trial court and presenting any necessary documents or forms. Declares that the surrender or parental consent process started prior to the birth of an unborn child will not be considered executed prior to the birth of the child and the expiration of any applicable waiting period. Authorizes the parent to withdraw the documents and forms presented to the judge at any time prior to the time the surrender or parental consent executes by notifying the court in which the process of surrender or parental consent was started. After the birth of the child and the expiration of any waiting period, the surrender or parental consent previously filed is considered executed and no additional action is required.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

Unchanged from the original fiscal note.

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- Based on information provided by the Department of Children's Services (DCS), the proposed legislation will not impact current policies and procedures; therefore, any fiscal impact to DCS is not significant.
- Based on information provided by the Administrative Office of the Courts, allowing a parent to start the process of a surrender or parent consent necessary to execute a surrender or parental consent prior to the birth of the child can be accommodated within existing resources without an increased appropriation or reduced reversion.
